

K'taka tourism aims high

BANGALORE: Bangalore, which has the highest number of young people with disposal incomes, will drive travel and tourism growth in Karnataka with the revenue from the sector expected to reach Rs 2,500 crore by 2009, a top official of an online travel company said.

"The T & T market in Karnataka is expected to grow from Rs 1,300 crore (2007) to Rs Rs 2,500 crore by 2009," MakeMyTrip.Com Founder and CEO Deep Kalra told reporters after launching the online travel firm's regional office here.